

2007-2008 Triangle Guitar Society Concert Series

October 27, 2007: Michael Nicolella 8 p.m.

Tickets: $15 general admission; $10 TGS members and St. Michael's Episcopal Church members.

Our season will begin with guitarist/composer, Michael Nicolella. He will be performing works by Bach, Scarlatti, Piazzolla, Albeniz, Nicolella and Jimi Hendrix. Nicolella was a student of Benjamin Verdery and a good friend of Dominic Frasca, both of whom are guitarist/composers and have played fantastic concerts for the TGS.

February 23, 2008: Isaac Bustos 8 p.m.

Tickets: $15 general admission; $10 TGS members and St. Michael's Episcopal Church members.

Isaac Bustos will return to perform a concert of music by Rodrigo, Giuliani, Barrios, Scarlatti, and the tour de force Sonata by Alberto Ginastera. Bustos has won many awards in various guitar competitions. Anyone who was present at his concert in April 2006 will remember his soulful and technically proficient performance.

June 7, 2008: TGS Benefit Concert featuring Randy Reed and Dennis Aberle 8 p.m.

Free, donations to benefit the TGS.

The Annual TGS Benefit Concert will feature Randy Reed and Dennis Aberle with special guest Soprano, Ariel Reed. Randy will be performing works including the Bach: Prelude, Fugue and Allegro as well as duets with both Dennis and Ariel. Dennis will no doubt have some marvelous selections as well. An event not to be missed.

The Triangle Guitar Society is Moving!

All three public concerts this season will be in Raleigh at St. Michael's Episcopal Church, 1520 Canterbury Rd, 5 blocks from the Whole Foods in Raleigh off Wade Ave! St Michael's is located inside the beltline in one of Raleigh's nicest suburban areas. The acoustics are spectacular and there are enough seats for 400 people with great free parking. All concerts are Saturday nights at 8:00 p.m.

Dear Guitar Enthusiast,

You are invited to come to our guitar concerts and join our guitar club. We are still the only arts society in the Triangle region that fosters appreciation for the classical and acoustic guitar. Since 1988 our concert series have brought a variety of artists to the Triangle, such as The LA Guitar Quartet, Charlie Byrd, Dennis Koster (flamenco), Alex DeGrassi, Martha Masters, Falla Guitar Trio, Cool John Ferguson, Andrew York, Domenic Frasca, Benjamin Verdery, Guitar Summit Concerts, and concerts featuring local talent. Here are some of the current benefits that you will enjoy with membership:

- Discounted admission to our concert events and master classes
- Newsletter with music, reviews, articles, and event calendars
- Member meetings, master classes, and clinics for members only
- Salon concerts for members only
- Annual holiday party and end of year dinner/recital/party

Our newsletter always contains two or more pages of music and was cited by the Guitar Foundation of America as one of the finest guitar society newsletters, (Soundboard, summer 1991).

TGS 2007-2008 Concert Series (all on Saturday nights):

October 27, 2007: Michael Nicolella 8 p.m.

February 23, 2008: Isaac Bustos 8 p.m.

June 7, 2008: TGS Benefit Concert featuring Randy Reed, Dennis Aberle and Soprano Ariel Reed 8 p.m.

The Triangle Guitar Society is a growing arts organization, but we obviously can't grow without members such as you. We are a non-profit organization run entirely by volunteers. The Society depends entirely on membership dues and ticket sales to attract renowned artists for our concert series. We hope that you will join and be part of our efforts to bring bigger and better guitar events to the Triangle.
